A Level Results 2013

I am delighted with the overall results this year. They show a marked improvement on last year. Over half of all grades were A* - B; this is remarkable. Over $\frac{3}{4}$ of all grades were C or better. Some changes we have made have had a very positive impact upon results.

There have been some remarkable individual performances. The grade profiles of many pupils are superb. A very large proportion of pupils have achieved 'A' grades. The overwhelming majority of students will progress to their first choice destination.

It has been a pleasure to see so many happy, smiling faces and a tremendous sense of satisfaction for the students and staff who have worked so hard to achieve these exceptional results.
