GCSE Examination Results

Dear Students, Parents, and Guardians,

Welcome to the latest edition of our GCSE Success Newsletter! As we celebrate the achievements of our students at Queen Elizabeth High School, we draw inspiration from the timeless values embodied by this year's Olympic Games. The Olympic philosophy teaches us invaluable lessons about perseverance, determination, and the pursuit of excellence – principles that resonate deeply with our academic journey.

Gold Medal Achievements

We are thrilled to announce that our students have excelled across various subjects and disciplines, earning outstanding results in their GCSE examinations. These achievements reflect not only their hard work but also the unwavering support of our dedicated faculty and the encouragement of their families.

- 23% of pupils were awarded with 5 or more A*-A grades
- Our top ten pupils once again achieved spectacular outcomes achieving 116 A*-A grades between them – Outstanding!
- A massive 78.4% of pupils were awarded 5 or more A*-C grades or equivalent
- A Capped 9 Points Score of 370
- All pupils supported by the school left with a recognised qualification
- 29 subjects attained 100% pass rates

The Spirit of Olympism

At Queen Elizabeth High School, Carmarthen, we believe in fostering a spirit of Olympism among our students:

- 1. Excellence: Striving for personal bests in every endeavor, whether academic, artistic, or sporting.
- 2. Determination: Overcoming challenges with resilience and dedication, just like athletes push their limits in pursuit of victory.
- 3. Unity: Embracing diversity and collaboration within our school community, fostering a supportive environment where everyone can thrive.
- 4. Inspiration: Drawing motivation from role models, both within our school and from the wider world of sports, to aim higher and achieve more.

Looking Ahead

As we look forward to the new academic year, let us carry forward the spirit of the Olympic Games. Let us set ambitious goals, support one another, and continue to strive for excellence in all our endeavours. Together, we can achieve great things!

Thank you to our students for their perseverance, our teachers for their guidance, and our parents and guardians for their unwavering support. We are proud of each and every one of you.

Kind regards,

Dave Williams
